Dear Sir, Dear Madam,

There are show that entertain. Others that provoke thought. And some, rarer, blazes a trail. 'Hors de Mon Egypte ' belongs to that category.

At a time when our society is undergoing a profound search for meaning, when our points of reference are fading and when hope sometimes seems to falter, we are convinced that artistic creation can once again become a privileged means of touching hearts.

'Hors de Mon Egypte ' is an original Christian musical. It is a work capable of resonating with believers as well as those who have drifted away from the faith. It is an artistically demanding project, faithful to the message of the Gospel, and deeply rooted in the concerns of our time.

Through the timeless story of the Exodus, 'Hors de Mon Egypte' reminds us that the chains of yesterday go by different names today: fear, loneliness, addictions, individualism, oppression or discouragement. This age-old story thus becomes a mirror of our own era and a universal invitation to rediscover the freedom offered by God.

Such a project cannot come to fruition without men and women who choose to put their resources at the service of a clear vision.

Through your patronage, you are making an act of trust. You are taking the decision to participate in a project that will leave a lasting mark on the lives of those it touches.

As you read through this booklet, you will discover a team of dedicated volunteers who are championing an ambitious artistic vision. We have also endeavoured to draw up a responsible and coherent budget.

In the hope that we may have the opportunity to build this project together, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to you.
